TRO X-Mas Card & Calendar Competition 2001

We would like to invite all Tamil children and adults to participate in this competition by designing pictures either for a x-mas card or for a calendar.

Last year we had original X-mas cards designed by Dr Neelani, which were sold internationally to raise funds for TRO projects in the North-East of Sri Lanka.

This year we are holding an international competition to encourage young Tamil artists to contribute their designs for this years cards and calendar.

X-Mas Cards

This years theme should be based on the work that TRO carries out in the North-East of Sri Lanka helping children, mothers, the old, the homeless, providing food & shelter.

Calendar

For the calendar, the design should be based on the the four seasons: Spring, Summer, Autumn & Winter and should also include TRO's work in helping Tamils in the North-East of Sri Lanka.

The design must be drawn on one A4 sheet of paper. The name of the designer, their age and address must be clearly labelled on the back of the picture. It should then be sent to our UK branch office (details below) by August 1st 2001. The designs should not be folded but placed in an A4 envelope. A small letter explaining the design should be included. The winning designs will be selected by our judges and used to print this years X-mas cards and the 2002 calendar.

Prizes ranging from a trip to Chessington World of Adventure & Book tokens will be presented to the winners.

We will not be able to return the designs so please make a copy before sending your original design.

We look forward to all your designs and hope young Tamil artists will contribute to this competition.

Send your designs to the following address by Aug 1st 2001
