Tamils an established presence on global stage

The impossibility of peace in Sri Lanka

Sri Lankan police support barricades as ruling party supporters shout anti-UK slogans and hold banners outside the British High Commission in Colombo, objecting to British foreign secretary David Miliband (pictured on right of banners next to British prime minister Gordon Brown) addressing a Global Tamil Forum (GTF) meeting in London. The posters showed the British politicians dressed in LTTE uniforms with the GTF logo and with devil's horns. Photo Lakruwan Wanniarachchi / AFP / Getty Images
